Budgie Bash – Sunday, 18th April

The club sale day, “Budgie Bash”, was very successful. It attracted a good turnout and there were 10 members with over 200 birds collectively for sale on the day. This enabled the club to raise a few $$ and helped the members to sell a few birds. A special thanks to those members who were involved and to everyone who was able to come along to support the sale and to Aussie Seed & Supplies that had a great stand with all the requirements members could need.

Promoting the Club

Unfortunately, this year the club was not able to have a stand/trade table at Avicultural Society of Australia Inc 2021 Expo due to unavailability of volunteers. This was a missed opportunity to promote the club and attract new members.

However, there will be another great opportunity to promote our club. This will be at the 2021 Whittlesea Show by having a promotional display, etc. The show schedule has not been released yet. But, in order that we may not miss another opportunity again, we are planning ahead and are asking for volunteers to contact Vanessa (the Club's secretary) via the club email info@unitedbudgies.org.au if they are able to assist. 😊

United's UBC Diploma Show

We are deferring the Club's UBC Diploma Show this year. More details will be emailed to members so that they can make plans to their breeding routines to reflect this change.

Starting from next year, the club will be presenting its 'first ever' yearly encouragement awards for "Best Club Beginner Member" and "Successful & Best Club Member" to the well-deserved candidates. More details with regard to the judging criteria and prizes, etc will be announced soon. Stay tuned!
